II Corinthians 6
Lisa Osteen Comes

II Corinthians 6

THREE MAIN TOPICS OF II CORINTHIANS 6:

1. We are co-workers with God.
2. What a Godly life looks like.
3. Being unequally yoked with unbelievers.

WE ARE CO-WORKERS WITH GOD: (II Cor. 6:1-2)

1. Paul sees himself as God's co-worker and this is how God sees us.
 - We are partners together with God doing His work. (I Cor. 3:9)
 - This is not our ministry, but God's ministry.
 - We are not only called to serve Jesus, but to represent Him wherever we go. (II Cor. 5:20)
 - God wants to lead you and work through you!
2. Paul urged us not to receive God's grace in vain.
 - Today is the day of salvation and it is only through Jesus that we are saved and made righteous before God. (Eph. 2:8-9)

WHAT A GODLY LIFE LOOKS LIKE: (II Cor. 3-13)

1. Paul tells us what a godly life looks like:
 - We patiently endure hardship.
 - We maintain a pure heart.
 - We are understanding with people.

MONDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

- We are patient with people.
 - We are kind to people.
 - We sincerely love people.
 - We have the Holy Spirit.
 - We faithfully preach the Truth of the Gospel of Jesus.
 - God's power is working in us.
 - We use the weapons God has given us.
 - We serve God whether people honor us or despise us.
 - We are honest and have spoken honestly.
 - We have joy even though our hearts ache.
2. We don't live like the world.
 3. We can pray and God will turn situations around. We have been given authority over Satan in the Name of Jesus.

DO NOT BE UNEQUALLY YOKED WITH UNBELIEVERS: (II COR. 6:14-18)

1. Yoke means to join or couple together. It's the literal meaning of being balanced.
 - We as believers must remain stable and balanced in our Christian walk.
 - We cannot do this if we are unequally yoked with the wrong people.
2. The Bible teaches us that believers and unbelievers live in 2 different worlds.
 - The kingdom of darkness is Satan's kingdom and the Kingdom of Light is God's Kingdom. (Col. 1:13-14)
 - In God's Kingdom, there is righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. (Romans 4:17)
 - When you are unequally yoked with unbelievers, you are yoking yourself with darkness. (Eph. 5:8-10)
 - We are to separate ourselves from unbelievers in the sense of being yoked with them in marriage, relationships, or in business.
3. The good news is that Jesus wants to be yoked together with you!

Behind the text, the letters "M", "N", "B", and "S" are visible in a larger, semi-transparent font, colored in shades of purple, blue, and red.

MONDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

- We have the privilege of being in an intimate relationship with Jesus walking together with Him step by step.
- This is also a reminder that we are not alone in life.
- We are yoked with the One who gives us the strength and direction we need.
